

Introduction to danish design and to this website

The following introduction in English and other English texts in this website are written by me without any deeper knowledge of the English language. Furthermore I mostly use danish spelling meaning that nouns do not start with a capital letter. Unless "Word" correct me.

Rooms and living spaces should have a visual intensity, beauty and calm, so that a person would want to live there. A home without arts and crafts is a home without soul. Our home comes alive when it is filled with practical and decorative things of our own choosing. Things expressing our personal taste and sensibilities.

The objects shown in this website is handmade and of high aesthetic and tecknical quality – I am told. They are unique and may be considered as luxury gifts for people, who value design and beautiful things. People who deserve something elegant and practical. They can be used as gifts for birthdays, weddings, receptions, jubilees, christmas and other important occasions. They can be gifts to family, friends and sweethearts who deserve exquisite and well functioning things. People who may have everything already and who do not enjoy mass produced goods.

Or – you may feel, that you deserve to give yourse They will probablIf a luxurious product. Or perhaps you can wish such a designed, handmade object for your birthday or as a Christmas present.

Prices range at present from 250-5000 danish crowns, Danish VAT included. They will rise in the future It takes 1-2 days or more to finish one new object. You may not be able to buy more than one thing at a time, however over time you can for instance wish for more clothes hangers if so needed.
